Biographic Sketch

NAMB: Lawrence K. Waite
RESIDENCE:
DATE OF BIRTH:
PLACE OF BIRTH: Union City, Tennesse	e
EDUCATION: Troy High Schook, Troy, United States Military Aca	Tennessee, Class of 1929 demy, Class of 1933, B.S. Engineering

STAT

STAT

EXPERIENCE: 1933-1947--Served as Regular Officer of the United States Army in grades from 2nd Lieutenant to Colonel until retired for combat disability.

Other: Infantry School, 1937

1933-1942--Company, Battalion, and Regimental Staff Officer,
Infantry Regiment (including 2 1/2 years with Philippine Scouts) serving at Jefferson Barracks,
Fort Benning, Fort Sam Houston, and the Philippine Islands.

Harvard University, Advanced Management Program, 1959

Brookings Institution, Management Seminar, 1960

- 1942-1945--Batallion Commander, Division Staff Officer, and Regimental Commander, 37th Infantry Division; combat included the New Georgia, Vella Lavella, Bougainville, and Luzon (P. I.) Campaigns
- 1945-1947--Hospitalized as a result of wounds received in action on 17 April 1945.
- 31 March 1947 -- Retired from service for combat disability.
- 1947-Present -- Entered on duty as civilian with the Central Intelligence Agency in February 1947; have served as a Deputy Director since January 1952.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

AWARDS: Distinguished Service Cross

Silver Star

Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster Bronze Star with two Oak Leaf Clusters

Purple Heart

Navy Commendation Medal Distinguished Unit Citation